

WORKSHOPS & LECTURES

An artist's duty, is to reflect the times.

-Nina Simone-

Black Lives, Black Words Artists are available to come to your theater and/or school to teach workshops, and to facilitate discussions regarding performances of art based around themes of social justice.

Our classes are designed for both beginners and experienced writers to sharpen their skills in writing theatre that serves as both political and social commentary. We are living in a challenging period and it is through the arts that we can play a big part in raising issues and rallying communities to take action. Members of Black Lives, Black Words are available to deliver lectures on the following topics:

- Playwriting as Activism
- Theatre and Social Justice
- Creating New Works
- Building Revolution
